Tutor: Linda Harding

Summary Description: Use traditional hand-carved wooden blocks from India to print onto papers and fabrics to create your own unique works of art.

Detailed Description: You will have the choice of over 50 different wooden blocks, hand carved with traditional and contemporary Indian designs, as well as African print blocks used for traditional printed textiles. A range of papers and fabrics will be available for you to use, and after learning how to make successful, clear prints, you are free to experiment! You will be able to choose colours of paint and surface and try repeat patterns and overprinting to achieve interesting effects. By the end of the workshop you will have made a range of individual pieces of creative work to take away with you.

Objectives/Outcomes: Learn how to block print successfully
Experiment with colours, repeat patterns and overprinting on different surfaces
The chance to try out a new specialist craft.
Access to the specialist materials required without an expensive outlay themselves
Enjoyment of creative learning in a relaxed and supportive atmosphere
